MERGER RELEASE

Dear customer / cooperation partner,

Scanfynn Oy (est.1976) and Biobe Oy (est. 1991) are merged into their holding company starting from March 1st 2017. The knowhow in the corporation and wide product range is now available under one company, Scancerco Oy.

The merged companies will remain as auxiliary business names and as own brands even companies themselves no longer exist. The line of business remains as construction trade with building materials and industrial products. The merger did not have any influence on the ownership neither on the personnel. The switch number is +358 9 7743 270. Mobile telephone numbers stay as they were before. New emails are in form firstname.surname@scancerco.fi.

The base for the merger was to clear out the corporation structure, eliminate double functions and to improve customer service experience from product information to ordering process and delivery. There are several development projects which are/will be put into practice side by side.

Related to the merger some changes concerning the responsibilities of our personnel has been done. These changes are made to allow our product range to expand with new brands and new products beside existing ones.

The merger effects on Business number, VAT number and invoicing. We do not receive any purchase invoices or other official documents which are issued for Biobe Oy or Scanfynn Oy after the merger implementation. Papery invoices issued for Scancerco Oy can be sent for below mentioned street address and electronic media like PDFs for reskontra@scancerco.fi

The new website for Scancerco is under construction and will be published as parts. Websites www.biobe.fi and www.scancerco.fi will exist from now till as long as needed.
